

JANUARY

- ☺ The month of molting, the casting off of fur, feathers, skin, leaves and bark
- ☺ Dragon flies mate
- ☺ Blue tongue lizards are born late January
- ☺ Coastal Banksias are dripping with nectar
- ☺ North-east winds blow blue-bottle onto beaches
- ☺ Large nectar eating orange and black mud wasps build their nests and fill them with spiders for their larvae to eat
- ☺ Breeding time for skinks

JANUARY

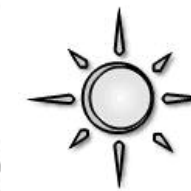

Date:

Date:

Date:

Date:

